15 Years in the Making: Closing of the Purchase of the Remainder of Former Delaney Homes Property for the Building of a New State of the Art High School 9/23/16 Press Conference

By: Katherine Massopust
PERTH AMBOY – On Friday, September 23, 2016 New Jersey Schools Development Authority (SDA) Chief Executive Officer Charles McKenna made an announcement at a press conference at the former Delaney Homes Property. The Perth Amboy Board of Education has finalized the purchase of the 11.638 acres of land from the Perth Amboy Housing Authority to be the future site of the new Perth Amboy High School.

At the press conference, McKenna thanked everyone who made this possible. He stated, "Governor Chris Christie made sure that new high schools are being built in New Jersey, especially in Perth Amboy where it's really needed. The new High School will have 535,000 square feet and will accommodate 2800 students. The project will cost $234 million which is paid for by the SDA."

Students from Flynn Elementary School were present during the announcement

Douglas G. Dzema, PHM Executive Director of the Housing Authority thanked everyone who made this possible.

Dorothy Carty-Daniel, Chairwoman of Perth Amboy Housing Authority spoke a few words regarding this historic moment, "It is Friday, September 23, 2016 – It's been a 15 year journey. I stand before you as a parent, a grandparent, educator, school administrator, former Board of Education Member and long term Housing Authority Officer. A total of all which brings me to this place today. A free public school education is the right of every child in our country and it is the government's responsibility to provide. The many thoughts that come into my mind as I stand before you today are words like: students, education, patience, planning, tenacity, preparation, due diligence, children, honor, thought and responsibility. We would never be at this junction were it not for the steadfast tenacity and due diligence of the SDA and individuals such as Paul Hamilton, Joe Higgins and Charles McKenna. They truly fought the good fight for the children of this district. I thank God for them and our Director, Doug Dzema who never lost his focus. I also thank my Board of Commissioners for allowing me to negotiate on their behalf. May this proposed institution of learning be the catalyst that successfully moves our youngsters into a brilliant future they so richly deserve. May God bless us all."

Some students from James Flynn Elementary School came to the event. Superintendent Dr. David Roman stated, "Here are the stars of the show. Now, there are troubling times. Building a high school for this district is doing something right. Our students that are here are due to arrive at the gate in 5-6 years. Adults see them and they matter. On behalf of Perth Amboy Public Education System, the students should know that they matter in this world."

Sometimes Politics Get in the Way

2016 Pink Ribbon Gala Committee

There was a movie titled: "A Few Good Men." We are looking for 100 Good Businesses or Individuals for the Pink Ribbon Gala on Saturday, October 15, 2016 (see ad on page 15 for full details). Everyone knows this is an election year, but truthfully politics is the last thing on my mind right now. In this editorial, I am concentrating on the Pink Ribbon Gala which will benefit Mary's Place by the Sea. 2015 was the first year the Gala was run and we were overwhelmed by the response, but this year because of all the candidates running for office, it may have put a dent into ticket sales. There are many different ways you can support a candidate besides making a monetary donation. In essence, I'm asking you to take some of that money and buy a ticket to the Gala. If you own a business, perhaps you can buy a ticket to send one representative to support this very important non-profit organization that benefits women going through cancer treatments. October is a very tough month because it seems to attract a lot of activities by many organizations. October has traditionally been Breast Cancer Awareness Month, but Mary's Place by the Sea is for women diagnosed and undergoing treatment with all forms of cancer. They accept women not only from New Jersey but also from out of state.

In the past, I have stated that many times people have made political contributions to candidates and in a few short years those candidates have disappointed them. Again I am stating that when you support Mary's Place by the Sea, you don't have to worry about your money going to a good cause; you know it will be. We have a deadline of Friday, September 30, 2016 to get ticket sales up. So, as soon as you read this editorial, I'm asking Businesses or Individuals to call the number listed in the ad on Page 15 to let them know that you will be there with a check before 3 p.m. Friday, September 30, 2016. Let's make this happen and support women who desperately need the peace of mind and complimentary services that Mary's Place by the Sea provides. Relieving stress is a very important element of the healing process, especially for anyone going through treatment for any illness. Just remember Mary's Place by the Sea is a 501c3 who depends on the generosity of donations. All donations are tax deductible as allowed. C.M.

THE COMMUNITY VOICE

You Can Bet It Was Planned That Way

Well I see a home grown terrorist name Ahman Khan Rahami was putting bombs in New Jersey and his father called the FBI two years ago warning them about his son. Then that's when the FBI put him in their radar. I guess they were watching him carefully on every move he made. Are we any safer then post 9\11? Your guess is as good as mine. I think there's something wrong going on here. The security system with immigration has failed us at some point. Yes, big brother knows who the bad guy is, but there's a failure in the system or lack of communication somewhere. So far, we have seen so-called home grown terrorists do their thing lately and we wonder why or how they did it in daylight. Like I said before, right before the election all this terrorist activity is going on and maybe more to come. We hope not. I want you to understand this carefully. I was told by someone who knows the system: "In politics, nothing happens by accident. If it happens, you can bet it was planned that way."

Orlando "Wildman" Perez

Editorial Correction

The editorial that was published in the September 21, 2016 edition erroneously identified a bomb going off in Seaside Heights, NJ. That is incorrect. The explosive device was located in a garbage can and went off near a scheduled 5K run supporting Marines and the Navy in Seaside Park, NJ. There were no injuries.

Thank you for correcting the record.

Loose Lips Sink Ships

The term, "Loose Lips Sink Ships," originated in World War Two. It was printed on posters and hung up in defense plants, on the streets, at the docks ...basically everywhere. They were put up to remind people not to talk about things like shipping schedules, types of cargo a ship was carrying, ship destinations... things like that. If the wrong people overheard your conversation you could cause a ship to be sunk, (they were sinking some of them right here off the Jersey coast), and maybe your father, brother, or neighbor could be on that ship. There were a lot of spies loyal to the other side right here in the good old U.S.A. looking for that information. That's not paranoia or fantasy, it's fact.

I think they should bring these signs back and put them up in every newsroom and news outlet in the country. The reason I say this is because I was watching a news report on one of the many news stations about the recent bombing in New York City. The commentator asked their resident expert a question that made me scratch my head. It seems that every news station has an expert when it comes to anything. A retired F.B.I. or A.T.F. guy, a top terrorism consultant from the firm of Dewey, Scruem, and Howe, the list goes on and on. The question that the commentator asked of this expert was, "What do you think the police are doing right now to find the person or persons that did this?"

Now the question was bad enough but this guy answered her. He told her what he thought the N.Y.P.D. detectives and counter terrorism division was doing now and will be doing. Evidence they are looking for and where they are likely to find it. Why don't we just paint these terrorist nudniks a picture? Give them a handbook of how not to get caught.

The "Public's Right to Know" thing has gotten way out of hand for the sake of ratings. Yes, the public has a right to know a lot of things but not the procedures that law enforcement uses to catch these guys. All "we the public" have to know is, there was a bombing, stay away from a certain area, and we caught the guy. That's it!

It is/was the consensus of many that this latest terrorist was dumb. Maybe, or maybe he was "dumb like a fox." If he and his followers are dumb, let's keep them that way for all our sake.

Announcement of New High School

Proposed Site for new PAHS

Dot Daniel offers some remarks *Photos by Paul W. Wang

Board of Education Members listen to the Announcement

Board President Sam Lebreault spoke next, "Getting here has not been easy. In 2011, the City was looking to redevelop this property. I went here with Doug Dzema. There were 15.6 acres that could be used for a new High School. They were going to develop the property. After meeting with the State, the SDA stated it will recommend this property to be used if bought by the Board of Education. Last week, I signed a $7.4 million check to the Housing Authority for the land to be used as a site for the new High School."

Senator Joe Vitale 19th District stated, "Today is a great day. For decades to come - the SDA stated that this is the only viable location (to build a High School). All the others did not pass the test. I'm pleased to be a part of the process."

Assemblyman John S. Wisniewski offered a few remarks, "It's 15 years and coming since the first discussions on a new Perth Amboy High School. I want to thank everyone who had roll in making it happen. It's the best thing we can do to preserve our democracy."

Mayor Wilda Diaz spoke next, "I want to thank everyone for making this special day - a historic day for Perth Amboy. It's a long time coming. For years there came rumors on a new high school. By the end of 2018 all brownfields in Perth Amboy will be developed. PAHS is my alma mater. My children also graduated from Perth Amboy High School. I want the day that our children can be proud to say they went to school in Perth Amboy. This is really emotional for me. There finally is going to be a new High School. I want to thank you for putting our children first."

The Amboy Guardian asked Board of Education President Sam Lebreault about some details about the plans for school construction and renovation in Perth Amboy. "After the new High School is built, the old High School on Eagle Avenue will be renovated and remain a high school. The BOE had purchased 3 properties by Paten School, Shull School and the Ignacio Cruz Center to build a cul-de-sac for parking and alleviate traffic problems in that area. The present administration building on Barracks Street will be remodeled to be a new Middle School. Shull School and McGinnis School will remain and the town will have 3 Middle Schools. Construction will begin on East Avenue for a new Administration Building. The original proposed bus depot will be located at another site. East Avenue was too centrally located for the proposed bus depot. We are looking at some properties now."

Lebreault continued, "The new high school will accommodate 2800 students and encompass 11.7 acres. Superintendent Dr. David Roman is working corroboratively with the State Department of Education to develop a program that will help design the necessary learning spaces that will be suitable for the new High School. When that is completed, bids will then go out to select a designer. Before any construction takes place, everything first must be demolished at the site and proven environmentally sound. This will be the largest High School ever built by the SDA. The whole project will hopefully be completed by 2022."

Sandy's Devastation: Inspires Perth Amboy to Rebuild, Be Better, Stronger and Keep Enhancing its Waterfront

See the beautifully restored waterfront, and celebrate the successful completion of Major improvements on Saturday, October 8th at 11 am Rain Date: Saturday, October 15th, 2016; Begin with Pink Ribbon Walk, attend the Celebration at Bay View Promenade and go to Waterfront Harvest Fest with Fun Activities, Food Trucks and Music

Press Release 9/23/16

PERTH AMBOY- Destruction caused by Super Storm Sandy inspired Historic Perth Amboy to rebuild, be stronger and always take action to enhance its beautiful waterfront.

On Saturday, October 8, Mayor Wilda Diaz and honored guests will celebrate the successful completion of major improvements to the City's waterfront. Leaders from government, business and many organizations are honoring the highly motivated people who made the wonderful waterfront recovery a reality. Everyone is invited to "Discover the Perth Amboy Waterfront" during ceremonies held at the new Bay View Park Promenade on Front Street at 11 am.

The Mayor, the Waterfront Redevelopment and Recovery Advisory Committee, and local officials are recognizing the incredible support Perth Amboy received from leaders in Middlesex County, the State of New Jersey, and the United States Government. The Mayor is thanking all of the individuals, local businesses, City employees, resident volunteers and nonprofit organizations that assisted with the rebuilding effort.

Before the ceremonies, Perth Amboy's Recreation Department has scheduled a Pink Ribbon Walk along the waterfront beginning at 10 AM. Everyone is invited to stroll along the Harbor Walk, and the activity is free. Donations are encouraged, and the contributions will go to nonprofits funding breast cancer research or early-detection programs for all women.

Immediately following the Mayor's ceremonies, the City will celebrate its milestone achievement by hosting the Waterfront Harvest Fest.

Also, a free event for the entire community and everyone is welcome. The Perth Amboy Recreation Department is organizing activities for children including hay rides, pumpkin picking and painting, colorful face art, pie eating contest, and much more in Bay View Park.

Mayor Diaz said, "We are gathering to celebrate and gratefully acknowledge the people and organizations that helped us achieve an incredible victory - the revival of our incredible waterfront. We invite neighbors from near and far to visit our amazing City - where they can shop, dine and enjoy themselves."

The celebration marks the transformation of Perth Amboy's waterfront. Hundreds of people worked non-stop for four years to beautifully restore waterfront's marina, harbor-side walkway, beaches, water view restaurants, local businesses, recreation areas and parks. The City's employees as well as engineers, general and sub-contractors, electricians, builders, masons, carpenters, and skilled construction workers rebuilt the waterfront.

The "Discover the Perth

Amboy Waterfront" event celebrates the efforts of everyone who contributed their time, talent, materials, or supplies to reconstruct and redevelop the City's most valuable resource.

In addition, the engineering, modern construction methods and many improvements will help reduce the impact to the waterfront from similar storms.

The Mayor added, "We are unsure of what the future holds, but we have seen the amazing results when people work together to rebuild after a devastating storm."

Throughout the day, activities include:

- Pumpkin picking and paint-
 - ing
 - Custom face art
 - Pie eating contest
 - Hayride Tours of Historic Sites
 - Fireboats with colorful, water displays
 - Armada of sailboats & yachts tacking across Raritan Bay
 - Music by D.J. and live performances
 - Food trucks selling refreshments and a variety of delicious cuisine in the Municipal Marina parking lot

NJ Transit Resilience Program Raritan River Bridge Replacement Project

PERTH AMBOY – On Tuesday, September 20, 2016 there was a public meeting at the Olive Street Community Center regarding the Raritan River Bridge which presently carries over 19,200 commuters daily via the NJ Transit North Jersey Coast Railroad Line along with moving over 2 million tons of freight via Conrail annually.

The presentation was made by R.J. Palladino, NJ Transit Senior Program Manager. He explained the need for this project. “The North Jersey Coast is the third busiest line in New Jersey. It’s important to keep operational and needs major work.”

The Raritan River Bridge is over 100 years old. The need for a new bridge became necessary after the Raritan River Bridge was damaged by Superstorm Sandy. Although the damage was repaired in order to bring the bridge to safe working order, the trains must still operate at reduced speeds when traversing the bridge. Additional reconstruction was deemed necessary for long term use of the bridge. It was determined that a new bridge was necessary to be able to operate at optimum speeds, be more resilient to storm damage and at the same time increase maritime travel capacity. “We are looking for a long term fix. This will provide adequate service for our train commuters and maritime customers. We are looking to do it in a way that minimizes interference and be implemented in a suitable time frame. Looking at storms (like Sandy) we needed a replacement bridge,” Palladino stated.

In 2014, post Sandy grants from the Federal Transit Association were available. These grants are geared to provide funding for repairing the infrastructure of the railroad destroyed or damaged by Sandy. NJ Transit applied for and received a Competitive Resiliency Grant from the Federal Government. This new bridge will be paid for by money from this grant.

Presently, the Raritan River Bridge is a swing bridge. It was recommended that the newly proposed bridge will be a Vertical Lift Bridge. (See photos). The proposed vertical lift bridge will be 46 feet high when closed and 110 feet high when open. “This replacement bridge will be constructed alongside the existing which will minimize the impact of the train and maritime vessels. It will be much more resilient to storm damage,” stated Palladino.

Because of the age of the bridge, NJ Transit is working with the State NJ Historical Preservation Office. They are also preparing an EA (Environmental Assessment) in accordance with the NEPA (National Environmental Policy Act) regarding the environmental work involved in constructing the bridge. The plan is for construction to be completed in 7 years.

The Amboy Guardian asked NJ Transit Representative Eddie Bonco why the Perth Amboy Train Station is still not handicapped accessible. Bonco stated that there are plans to renovate the Perth Amboy Train Station and that he was

A Vertical Lift Bridge which will be similar to the one built between South Amboy and Perth Amboy. Bridge the project manager on this matter. Bonco replied, “The Perth Amboy Train Station will be handicapped equipped (in the near future). There will be a high level platform and 4 elevators. “The project is presently at 30% (Planning Stage) and hopefully will begin building the platform in the summer of 2017. Everything is going to be fixed and brought up to code,” Bonco stated.

South Amboy “Hole-in-the-Wall”
 Evaluated by Mayor Fred Henry
 9/21/16 Council Meeting

By: Joseph L. Kuchie

SOUTH AMBOY - South Amboy Mayor Fred Henry reported that he and Freeholder Director Ronald Rios recently evaluated the famous “Hole-in-the-Wall”.

Resident Pete Kenny asked about the current status of the tunnel at last Wednesday’s city council meeting. Mayor Henry explained that a letter had been sent a letter to Conrail with a report of their findings.

“We took a quick walk-through and [Director Rios] observed that it is obviously in disrepair,” Mayor Henry said. “They sent [Conrail] a letter saying that something has to be done with it, they gave them some time, they didn’t respond. They sent them another letter and [Director Rios] told me that they will go to court with Conrail if they don’t do something about it.”

The Hole-in-the-Wall connects Stevens Avenue and Ridgeway Avenue near Route 35. The narrow roadway serves as a tunnel that goes under six to eight railroad tracks.

The City Council also sent their congratulations to the South Amboy Arts District, which had their grand opening earlier this month.

“I’d like to congratulate the Arts District for their grand opening which they had last Saturday Night,” Councilwoman Zusette Dato said. “There was a lot of good coverage, a lot of people from the arts were there to see what was going on and lend support. I think it’s very exciting for our city.”

“I had the opportunity to go over there Saturday and it really was terrific,” Councilman Tom Reilly said. “It was music, it was arts, it was everything I thought it would be and more than that. We’ve got a lot of talented people on this committee and I think there’s going to be a lot of good things coming.”

Business Administrator Camille Tooker added that will be an official ribbon cutting ceremony at the Arts District’s main office on October 27th which will be followed by an open house.

Councilman Donald Applegate was not in attendance for the council meeting. The next city council meeting will be held on October 19th at 7 p.m.

Follow These Steps for a Healthy Pregnancy

By: Steven C. Goldberg, M.D.,
FACOG

There aren't words to describe how exciting it is to be preparing for the arrival of your new baby. Or how nerve-racking. With an endless stream of advice and recommendations from experts, web sites, magazines, and well-meaning friends and family, it can be confusing to figure out how to give your child the best start in life. Here are five top tips for a healthy pregnancy, plus two exciting classes to help grandparents, family and caregivers learn how to take the best care of your precious addition.

- Get Up To Date On Vaccinations, Especially The Flu Shot: Getting vaccinated for the flu now, when flu season is beginning, is a must for a healthy pregnancy. If you haven't had the tetanus pertussis vaccination in the past two years, make sure to get this vaccine after 22 weeks of pregnancy. Make sure everyone taking care of your baby is up to date with their vaccinations as well, especially Tdap, which protects against whooping cough, tetanus and diphtheria.

- Eat Well & Don't Forget Your Pre-Natal Vitamins: Have three well-balanced meals daily to nourish yourself and baby too.

Prenatal vitamins balance your diet and help to ensure a healthy pregnancy. Folic acid helps protect against birth defects of your baby's brain and spinal cord.

- Take Steps Not To Stress: Though many moms focus on the physical aspects of their pregnancy, having good mental health is crucial for a healthy pregnancy, too. Help reduce stress and clear the mind by making time for self-care, whether that means pre-natal yoga or other gentle exercise, napping, or a daily walk.

- Consider Genetic Testing: Pay special attention to prenatal tests offered to you during pregnancy, including genetic testing. It is important to know if you or your partner's family has a history of genetic problems. Genetic testing can screen your baby for many disorders. Your ob-gyn call tell you if genetic testing might be right for you.

- Ask Your Doctor About Cord Blood Banking: Cord blood banking saves stem cell-rich cord blood for potential use later in your child's life. Families, especially those with a history of some genetic traits, cancer or other disorders should ask their doctor how cord blood banking can be an invaluable resource for their loved ones.

Raritan Bay Medical Center is offering two classes in October to help everyone in your family prepare for the arrival of your newborn. A grandparents newborn care class will be held Thursday, October 6, and a basic newborn care class Wednesday, October 19, both 6:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. These classes provide helpful information about diapering, feeding, developing sleeping habits and more, are held at the Raritan Bay Area YMCA in Perth Amboy and cost $50 per couple. Sign up today by calling 1-800-DOC-TORS.

Steven C. Goldberg, M.D., FACOG, is part of the Bay Obstetrics and Gynecology practice, affiliated with Raritan Bay Medical Center, a member of the Hackensack Meridian Health family and is chair of the department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Raritan Bay. Experts Now Recommend Weight Loss Surgery as a Standard Treatment for Type 2 Diabetes

By: Ayotunde Adeyeri, M.D.,
FASMBS

Weight loss surgery not only leads to dramatic weight loss, but it also reverses type 2 diabetes in most people who undergo these stomach-shrinking procedures. According to a joint statement endorsed by 45 international diabetes organizations, published in the June 2016 issue of Diabetes Care, a publication of the American Diabetes Association and the leading source for the latest research in diabetes treatment, care and prevention, experts now say that surgery for weight loss should become a more routine treatment option for people with type 2 diabetes - even those who are only mildly obese.

Many of the estimated 29 million Americans with type 2 diabetes are overweight or obese. Marked by high levels of sugar in the blood, type 2 diabetes increases the risk of heart disease, kidney disease, eye and nerve complications, and other serious health problems. Currently, weight-loss surgery is considered appropriate for two groups of people: those with extreme obesity (a body mass index, or BMI, of 40 or higher) or those only with moderate obesity (BMI of 35 or higher) who also have an obesity-related health problem, such as type 2 diabetes, high blood pressure or sleep apnea. But this new research recommends that even people with mild obesity (a BMI between 30 and 35) who have trouble controlling their blood sugar levels should be considered candidates for weight loss surgery, also known as bariatric surgery.

The two most common weight loss procedures are the gastric bypass procedure and the gastric sleeve. Most are performed through several small belly incisions. Talk with a board certified bariatric surgeon to determine which procedure is recommended for you, based upon your medical history and weight loss goals.

After weight loss surgery, people lose weight partly because they're physically unable to eat as much food, but also because they're far less hungry. The stomach secretes a hunger hormone (ghrelin), so removing most of that organ also shrinks a person's appetite. Weight loss surgery also seems to improve the body's ability to produce and respond to insulin, the hormone that helps regulate blood sugar. Compared to medical and lifestyle treatments (such as diet and exercise), recent studies show that weight-loss surgery is far more effective for treating type 2 diabetes.

According to the Diabetes Care statement, fewer than half of adults with type 2 diabetes meet blood sugar goals and other targets that would lower their risk of long-term complications from the disease—yet another argument for including surgery for weight loss in treatment guidelines for type 2 diabetes.

Ayotunde Adeyeri, M.D., FASMBS, is a board-certified and fellowship-trained laparoscopic, bariatric and general surgeon and medical director of the Institute for Weight Loss at Raritan Bay Medical Center, a member of the Hackensack Meridian Health family. The Institute is accredited by the MBSAQIP as a Comprehensive Bariatric Center and provides individualized medical and surgical solutions and support for individuals seeking weight loss, including nutrition and lifestyle counseling. Shine a Light on Mental Illness and Let Others Know There is Hope and Understanding

By: Nanditha Krishnamsetty,
M.D.

Each year, millions of Americans face the reality of living with a mental health condition. October 2 through October 8 is Mental Illness Awareness Week. Each year, the week provides an opportunity to fight stigma, provide support, educate the public and advocate for equal care.

One in five adults experience mental illness problems every year and 50 percent of chronic mental illness begins by age 14. Although many people today understand that mental illness is a medical condition, individuals and families affected by mental illness are still often subjected to stigma and discrimination.

Anyone can experience mental health problems. Friends and family can make all the difference in a person's recovery process. You can help by recognizing the signs of mental health problems and connecting your friend or family member to professional help. Supportive friends can play an important role in the mental health recovery process. All too often, people respond negatively or dismissively when an individual discloses their mental health disorder.

This year, the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) is calling on everyone to shine a light on mental illness and replace stigma with hope. Tuesday, October 4 is the National Day of Prayer for Mental Illness Recovery and Understanding. The prayers and actions of both faith communities and secular organizations can help to shine a light on mental illness and replace stigma with hope. To learn more, visit www.nami.org.

In addition, as part of Mental Illness Awareness Week, National Depression Screening Day will be held Thursday, October 6. If you or someone you know may need a mental health assessment, a free and anonymous mental health screening is available online at www.helppyourselfhelpothers.org/. Shine a light on mental illness and replace stigma with hope by taking the pledge to be stigma free. To take the #Stigma-free pledge, visit www.nami.org/stigmfree.

Psychiatrist Nanditha Krishnamsetty, M.D., is part of Bay Behavioral Health at Raritan Bay Medical Center, a member of the Hackensack Meridian Health family. The practice provides comprehensive assessment, counseling and, when necessary, medication management for children (age 8) through adults to achieve mind/body wellness. Bay Behavioral Health is located at Raritan Bay - Old Bridge, Suite 302, 3 Hospital Plaza. For more information or to make an appointment, call 732.360.4077.

If you or someone you love is suffering from a serious mental health problem or have mentioned suicide, call Raritan Bay's crisis hotline to speak with an experienced mental health counselor. This free, confidential service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at 732.442.3794.

Citizens Campaign Unveils Package to Empower People to Upgrade Their Neighborhoods Civic Trusts in Perth Amboy, Trenton and Newark to discuss Policies with City Officials

Press Release 9/12/16

PERTH AMBOY - The Citizens Campaign today unveiled a package of policies and tools empowering people to fix-up and upgrade their own neighborhoods. The Citizen Neighborhood Improvement Package provides concrete ways for people to take matters into their own hands and help their communities recover from the wave of foreclosures and abandoned properties triggered by the Great Recession. The Citizen Neighborhood Improvement Package was developed by Civic Trustees in Newark, Trenton and Perth Amboy with expert assistance from The Citizens Campaign's Law and Policy Task Force. It contains a set of citizen-based programs designed to put urban neighborhoods on a path of continuous improvement. Civic Trustees from Perth Amboy, Newark and Trenton will be working with elected officials and neighborhood organizations on implementing the multi-pronged program. According to the Trustees, the Package can be tailored and adapted to each city's current challenges and to complement each city's current policies in these areas.

The Citizen Neighborhood Improvement Package includes three essential elements. A foundation for action is established through a citizen-conducted Monthly Maintenance Survey of zoning, building and property maintenance code violations, public property maintenance deficiencies, and vacant local abandoned properties. Its purpose is to facilitate the work of code enforcement and public works officials by providing them with a user-friendly list of neighborhood priorities. To enhance accountability, copies of the list will also be provided to the elected officials responsible for supervising these departments and to all neighborhood residents. The list will be made available at a set time each month to better enable planning of staff time.

A funding mechanism is provided through a City Banking Policy to speed the fix up of abandoned properties. It takes advantage of a new state law that gives cities the right, with just 30 days' notice, to go in and fix-up neighborhood eyesores and recoup the costs. The policy provides banks who wish to get city deposits an incentive to lend money to fund the upfront costs of fixing abandoned properties. Based on local laws identified by Civic Trustees as working in Cleveland and Seattle, the policy makes banks compete for city deposit funds on the basis of their willingness to fund socially responsible policies such as advancing abandoned property fix-up funds.

A quality of life boost is offerred through a Tree Donation Program that enhances the neighborhoods whose residents take responsibility for public works oversight. It gives neighborhoods the ability to place donated mature shade trees in locations the residents identify. Donors provide the cost of a mature shade tree, its planting costs and a year's maintenance to ensure the tree's viability in return for a plaque or marker at the base of the tree dedicating it to a loved one or someone whom the donor respects.

Harry Pozzycki, Chair of The Citizens Campaign said, "Our cities were hit hard by the foreclosure crisis leaving abandoned properties in its wake. This package empowers people to take matters into their own hands and come together to fix-up their neighborhoods."

Pozzycki added, "Civic Trustees are looking forward to working closely with elected officials, appointed officials and neighborhood organizations to tailor the model Citizen Neighborhood Improvement Package to fit with their specific city's neighborhood programs. Taken together, the elements of the program give people the tools to bring about achievable and ongoing improvements to their neighborhoods--ones that will boost property values and improve residents' quality of life."

This Week in World War II 75 Years Ago

By: Phil Kohn. Dedicated to the memory of his father, GM3 Walter Kohn, U.S. Navy Armed Guard, USNR, and all men and women who have answered the country's call in time of need. Phil can be contacted at ww2remembered@yahoo.com.

On September 26, 1941, German Army Group South reaches Sevastopol, in the Crimea. Around the city, 32,000 Soviet Separate Coastal Army soldiers under Maj. Gen. Igor Petrov begin constructing a network of three well-organized rings of defense.

The first liberty ship, SS Patrick Henry, is launched at Baltimore on September 27. Thirteen more of the vessels are also launched today, with 312 more remaining on order. In Europe, Reinhard Heydrich — described even by Adolf Hitler as “the man with the iron heart” and one of the main architects of the Holocaust — is named Acting Reich-Protector of Bohemia and Moravia in Czechoslovakia. Upon his appointment, he tells his aides: “We will Germanize the Czech vermin.” The Communist Party of Greece and three other left-wing Greek political parties jointly form the National Liberation Front to oppose the German occupation.

A civilian uprising against the oppressive Bulgarian occupation of northern Greece begins in the city of Drama and surrounding villages on September 28. It is put down brutally, with about 3,000 people executed in reprisals in Drama alone. In the U.S., Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox, batting .400 for the year, insists on playing in both games of a doubleheader with the Philadelphia Athletics on the last day of the regular season. He bats 4 for 5 in the first game and 2 for 3 in the nightcap, finishing with a .406 season batting average. (No one has hit .400 or over for a season in major league baseball since.)

The Moscow Conference begins on September 29; Averell Harriman, representing the U.S., and Lord Beaverbrook, for the U.K., meet with Soviet foreign minister Vyacheslav Molotov to arrange urgent assistance for the U.S.S.R. German SS troops, assisted by Ukrainian police and local collaborators, kill over 33,700 Jews at Babi Yar, outside of Kiev, Ukraine. The Germans claim the killings are in response to incidents of sabotage attributable to the local Jewish population. Finnish forces break through to Petrozavodsk on Lake Onega in Karelia, northern Russia. In New York City, Joe Louis defeats Lou Nova by a technical knockout in the 6th round of their fight to retain his heavyweight boxing championship.

On September 30, Gen. Heinz Guderian's Panzer Group 2 is moved north to become the right wing of the German attack on Moscow. German troops break out of Dnepropetrovsk, moving southeast toward Donetsk.

On October 1, 1941, the Nazi Majdanek concentration camp (Konzentrationslager Lublin) opens in Occupied Poland, on the outskirts of the town of Lublin. Between October 1941 and July 1944 at least 200,000 people will be killed in the camp. The New Zealand Division of the Royal Navy is redesignated as the Royal New Zealand Navy “Operation Typhoon” begins on October 2 as German forces launch an all-out offensive against Moscow. In Paris, six synagogues are dynamited by the SS, the German security and surveillance organization.

Novena to St. Rita

O holy protectress of those who art in greatest need, thou who shineth as a star of hope in the midst of darkness, blessed Saint Rita, bright mirror of God's grace, in patience and fortitude thou art a model of all the states in life. I unite my will with the will of God through the merits of my Savior Jesus Christ, and in particular through his patient wearing of the crown of thorns, which with tender devotion thou didst daily contemplate. Through the merits of the holy Virgin Mary and thine own graces and virtues, I ask thee to obtain my earnest petition, provided it be for the greater glory of God and my own sanctification. Guide and purify my intention, O holy protectress and advocate, so that I may obtain the pardon of all my sins and the grace to persevere daily, as thou didst in walking with courage, generosity, and fidelity down the path of life. (Mention your request.) Saint Rita, advocate of the impossible, pray for us. Saint Rita, advocate of the helpless, pray for us. Recite the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be three times each. K.M. & C.M.

A Petition to St. Joseph

Dear St. Joseph, head of the most perfect household, foster father of Jesus and guardian of His mother Mary, I confidently place myself and all my concerns under your care and protection. I ask that, through your powerful intercession with God, you obtain for me all the help and graces that I need for my spiritual and temporal welfare and in particular, the special favor I now ask there mention or think of your home sale or any other petition, especially family needs. Good St. Joseph, I know with confidence, that your prayers on my behalf will be heard by God and that He will grant my request, if it be for His glory and my greater good. Thank you St. Joseph, for having responded to my call. Amen. G.T.A.
