PERTH AMBOY - Before Mayor Diaz stepped to the podium to deliver her State of the City Speech on 3/19/13, Assemblyman Craig Coughlin reminisced about his and the Mayor's rocky start.

Mayor Diaz, who began her first Mayoral term in 2008 was at the Forge Hotel around January 2009. Coughlin was one of three candidates which included Judge Mathias Rodriguez of Perth Amboy who was hoping to win the Democratic Party's Nomination to run for the Assembly for the 19th District.

Coughlin said, "Diaz was not a supporter of mine at first. She stuck up for another candidate for the Assembly. But Diaz answered the City's call when she ran. There was a debt of $250 million and low morale when she came in. She reduced the debt by $54 million. Diaz worked with the State, Legislatures and NJ Transit to bring more businesses to the City. She also brought $600 million in projects into the town." Road paving, revitalization of the Tennis Courts and 1000 volunteers for beach cleanup were other items mentioned by Coughlin.

He concluded, "She still has much work to be done but I'm glad she is on my side."

When Mayor Diaz came up to speak, she told Coughlin how much she appreciated the hard work that he's done. She also thanked Freeholder Ron Rios, Senator Joe Vitale, her family, staff, the City Council and City employees. She also welcomed Frank Pallone, Jr. to the City (who now has a satellite office in Olive Street). Diaz paid tribute to the recent passing of former Councilman and former City Historian Jack M. Dudas. (flags were flown at half-staff in his memory.) She also mentioned the passing of Bobby Carter who was a well known Detective and Tennis Instructor in the City.

In the heart of her speech, Mayor Diaz talked about the Goals she has set forth which includes openness, honesty and dialogue to unify the City. She continued with, "We have rebounded from a failing economy and have reduced the budget for the second year in a row. The budget has been cut by over $4 million since 2010. "The City was denied transitional aid because the City is on the right financial track. But we still have a long way to go for financial stability. S & P (Standard and Poor) gave a positive financial outlook to the City. We are creating surpluses. We have a real rebuild-

USA for 6 Days Delivering for America 3-24-13

PERTH AMBOY - An estimated crowd of 1100 postal union workers, supporters and Union Officials rallied on Jefferson Street in front of the Post Office. This rally was the only one held in the State of New Jersey. It was to uphold 6 day mail delivery.

Tables were set up where people could sign a petition to keep six day mail delivery. T-Shirts that said "Delivering

For America" were given out to those who signed the petition.

South Amboy Pays Seven Property Tax Appeal Refunds

By: Joseph L. Kuchie

The City of South Amboy passed seven resolutions last Wednesday rewarding a number of local residents their property tax appeals.

A total of $25,765.49 was rewarded to seven different households in South Amboy following appeals through the Tax Court of New Jersey. Each appeal was for the years 2011 and 2012 and averaged about $3,680 per home.

According to the tax map, each appeal came from properties located on Lighthouse Drive. Each property saw a reduction in assessed value between $100,000-200,000 from 2011 to 2012 and each received a tax adjustment of over $3000.

The Chief Financial Officer of South Amboy has been instructed to draw a check for each household no later than March 29, 2013.

The city also passed a resolution issuing a tax refund to a family on Raritan Street. According to Resolution 57-2013, an overpayment was made by Register Settlement Services, Inc. of $1,421.46 and the company has requested that the refund be sent directly to the homeowners.

The city's CFO has been authorized to issue the family a check for the said refund.

Mayor Henry thanked everyone involved in the city's St. Patrick's Day Parade. He said the Police Department did a very good job of keeping the streets safe and making the day a very family oriented atmosphere.

Councilman Donald Applegate and Councilwoman Zusette Dato were not in attendance for the meeting.

ing plan and transparency with our lenders. There are government services available to our residences and businesses. We have capitol improvement programs. We just received a new fire engine. The Jefferson Parking Deck improvements and automated garbage pickups with the new garbage truck."

She mentioned redevelopment sites, the City Business Plan and a reassessment of business plans and the creation of a new business handbook.

There have been cleanup grants for the brownfields and $4.5 million in funds for street improvements and environmental cleanups such as the Goldberg Property. "It is important to support new and existing businesses. We closed on the Veridian Property in January of this year. Perth Amboy has a lot of assets. We look forward to an economic turnaround that will stimulate growth and help with taxes."

Diaz welcomed several new businesses who came into town and established businesses who opened up branches in Perth Amboy. She also made reference to the Waterfront Comeback, specifically the Barge Restaurant which reopened in January and the Armory which is expected to reopen in May.

To those affected by Hurricane Sandy, the SBA (Small Business Association) and FEMA deadlines to sign up for assistance is April 1, 2013.

She reiterated what Assemblyman Coughlin said about the 1000 volunteers for the beach cleanup due to Hurricane Sandy which caused $10 million in damage to the City.

Funds of $1.7 million from a coastal repair grant will be used for repairing walkways, piers and the beach front.

She gave an update on some of the historic areas in town such as the Surveyor General's Office which is undergoing renovations and the Public Library repairs which is in Phase 1 with improvements of the interior on the main floor. The Mayor also gave kudos to the volunteers of the library. Diaz also thanked the nonprofit organizations such as the Jewish Renaissance, Catholic Charities and PRAHD (Puerto Rican Association for Human Development). The First Time Home Buyers Program was also mentioned as she thanked the staff who assisted the residents in this program.

The Recreation Department added new water events such as kayaking. "There were over 40 new events for seniors besides events for youth and Diaz thanked those who supported Celebrate the Amboys Fireworks, "We hope to do it again this year."

The Fire Department was mentioned for the great job they did during the fires we had last year. "The Fire Department has programs for the visually and hearing impaired." She wished to thank Larry Cattano and his team for the great job they did during the recent storms. Also the YMCA, the school staff and American Red Cross were thanked for their assistance during the storm. She wished to thank her staff and entire workforce for the job they did.

At the end of her speech, Diaz said, "We've had visionaries and leaders of the past 300 years."

At the end of her speech, she quoted President John F. Kennedy. The quote was, "For I can assure you, that we love our country, not for what it was, though it has always been great - not for what it is, though of this we are deeply proud - but for it someday can, and through the efforts of us all, someday will be."

LOCAL PERSPECTIVE

EDITORIAL

In Appreciation

Carolyn Maxwell receives the Vol. 1, No. 1 of the Amboy Beacon from Peter Book who is joined by his wife, Annette.

There was a voice mail on my phone from Mr. Peter Book a.k.a. Pedro Libro. His voice was very excited as he told me that he found a copy of the very first Amboy Beacon dated September 8, 1993, Vol. 1, No. 1. He told me he wanted me to have this copy and he would meet me wherever and whenever I agreed upon.

We met at Mr. Book's house and my associate Katherine Massopust took a photo.

On the front page was a photo of Bill George listing him as the Editor, and Phyllis Steigelman as publisher. Bill and Phyllis had quite an extensive background in the Newspaper business. It was quite impressive. I knew of Bill's background, but this was the first time I was exposed to Ms. Steigelman's credentials.

Throughout the paper there was congratulations from the then governor, Jim Florio, the Mayors at the time, of South Amboy Jack O'Leary and his Council, and Perth Amboy, Joe Vas, and Woodbridge Mayor McGreevy and his family, Asm. Bob Menendez and other local politicians.

On the back cover was a full page ad from a local grocery store. Although the issue will be 20 years old this September, surprisingly some prices in that store circular have not changed that much.

They had a 2 liter bottle of Pepsi-Cola listed for 99 Cents. And today, I can find Pepsi listed for that same price in a 2 liter bottle.

Peter Book was mentioned for a book he wrote called, "Pages From A Book." Book was described in the Amboy Beacon as one of Perth Amboy's most talented writers. Jack M. Dudas who was a Councilman at that time was also mentioned in that first issue in a letter to the editor written by John Siberry.

Peter Book, as everyone knows is alive and well but unfortunately Jack M. Dudas passed away on March 15, 2013.

Below is a photo of a resident who is now on the Historic Preservation Commission with myself. He wrote a column in the first Amboy Beacon. Do you recognize him?

Town & Country

These are just a few interesting items I found in the paper.

Mr. Book gave me a copy of a book written by his sister, Mary Book Farmer called, "When We Were Children: Vignettes of Our Growing Up Years In the Depression."

I glanced through some of the chapters and it's a very good read. The Book children grew up in a very loving home and talked about the Perth Amboy they loved so much. What impressed me the most is the love and respect the Book children showed for each other and their parents. C.M.

THE COMMUNITY VOICE

The Myth of Class Ranking

Why is it that a number defines a person's intelligence? Why is it that they put so much pressure on those who are looking for success? Everyone should be equal no matter their abilities. There are some individuals who are not at a higher rank because of problems at home, how can a number dictate your intelligence? What if you are smart but are not a good test taker? What if your health does not allow you to succeed as much as you want to? What if you are not in a good psychological state? What if just maybe we got rid of ranks? It is just a number defining who you are... it is just unfair.

Class ranking works the same as school ranking. It is measure without a concrete scale. Perth Amboy High School, for example, ranked 320 out of 328 high schools in New Jersey (NJMonthly). Our school is LABELED as one of the worse schools in New Jersey, yet we have students being accepted into top universities and colleges across the country. Our 2011 valedictorian, Rony Cepeda, is currently attending Harvard University. Harvard University is one of the prestigious colleges in the world, well-known everywhere. 2012 graduate, Rosa, is attending Brown University and Joshua Nunez is attending George Washington University. They all received scholarships and are currently excelling in their schools, yet Perth Amboy High School is ranked 320. 2013 graduates are getting accepted into prestigious schools. Heidy Mendez was accepted into Brown University and Narlyn Veliz was accepted into Princeton University. They will both attend these universities in the fall and show that our school is not 320; it is number 1.

There are many more acceptance letters coming for this year, and we can all say that a number should not label a person's intelligence and a schools rank. We are all number one; we are all aiming for the goal of SUCCESS!

Good Democrats

How surprising to see a paid political ad in last week's edition of the Amboy Guardian with former mayoral candidates Frank Salado, Miguel Morales and Bob McCoy surrounding current Mayor Diaz encouraging all to "unite" for the good of the Democratic party.

I didn't know there was a "way" for a democrat to be better than another democrat. What I come away with after reading Mayor Diaz's political ad is that the best way to be a good democrat is to be a democrat like she is. But isn't that the same reason the three other democratic s became candidates for mayor and decided to run against Diaz?

Defeated Mayoral candidate Miguel Morales of Mayor Diaz's leadership efforts "With all due respect you are not a full time mayor, the business administrator is," (Amboy Guardian Oct. 26, 2012)

Defeated Mayoral candidate Frank Salado on Mayor Diaz's handling of our police department "According to the crime statistics, at least one crime is occurring in Perth Amboy every five hours," Salado said. "We have recently had shootings, and last week a 20-year-old boy was stabbed to death. Something needs to be done." (Amboy Guardian Oct. 26, 2012)

Defeated Mayoral candidate Bob McCoy on Mayor Diaz's inability to stabilize taxes, "I propose to repackage those previous construction projects that would expand the city's tax base and introduce new tax revenues to help stabilize local taxes." (Amboy Guardian Oct. 23, 2012)

Since they all are on the same team now I guess Mr. Morales is agreeable to a part-time mayor, Mr. Salado is content with a soaring crime rate and Mr. McCoy believes stabilizing taxes should no longer be a priority.

Truth is the Diaz way to be a democrat was defeated with 65% of our registered voters wanting change. If all of you want to be good democrats, ensure that by the time the next election comes around, the winner will need a mandatory 51% or more of the majority to hold office. That's being a good democrat.

Tommy Hudanish

Happy Memories

One of the joys of St. Patrick's Day and the coming of Easter and Spring is watching the TV films of The Quiet Man with John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara. It is the story of a retired prize fighter who goes back to Castletown, Ireland, the place of his birth. He winds up with Maureen O'Hara as his wife. My own life is similar. After retiring from the airlines I found my own version of Maureen in Annette, my own hometown Colleen.

When we started flying to Europe in Lockheed Constellation four engine propeller flights, Shannon Airport was a most welcome refueling stop after a long 9 hour flight from Gander, Newfoundland. And the stay at Limerick while the plane continued on to Frankfurt was comforting and fascinating.

On one of our flights we ran into a problem while in the traffic pattern of Shannon Airport. Our landing gear failed to fall into position. We alerted the airport while we frantically tried to lower the gear manually by pumping a lever. Meanwhile they started the crash crew to prepare for a belly landing. After the captain and copilot failed to manually crank down the gear it was my turn to handle the lever. I pumped with all my might. Just as I was about to give up the gear dropped into place. We had a normal landing. Thank God! Whew!

I can appreciate the concern that my dear friend and neighbor Dan Dooley, the retired U.S. Air Force Sergeant, has for Dundalk, the Irish city on the North Sea's side of Ireland on his periodic visits and his postcards and Irish tea.

Thanks Dan for Happy Memories!
Thank you for your courtesies.

Very truly yours,
Peter Book/a.k.a. Pedro Libro

Perth Amboy Residents Call for New Approach to Mental Health Treatment

Press Release March 24, 2013
There is a group of Perth Amboy tenants on a unique quest for health. On Saturday, in the Harbortown section of Perth Amboy, this group of residents showed off their cooperative garden effort to friends and family and transferred their sprouted winter plants into patio planters. The collective consists of residents of a Perth Amboy location of a mental health service and housing provider called SERV. 14 gathered in May of 2012 to address a common grievance about site rules. They evolved into a drop-in style self-help group. 21 of the 30 residents of the SERV Perth Amboy apartments have attended a monthly meetings in their apartments.

The planting took place outside of some of the residents' apartments. Present were 10 residents, 9 of their friends, neighbors and family members, Rutgers professor Mark Lamar and his wife Michelle-also a gardener, and 2 SERV staff members. The group built two snap pea trellises from bamboo, paint sticks and string, and transferred a spinach crop to a wooden "repurposed" patio planter (previously a piece of store display furniture). Plantings included snap peas, broccoli and some pencil pod beans and displayed 5 sprouted seedlings of various leafy green plants. In the future other plants will include tomatoes, peppers, basil, and 3 other bean varieties.

The name of the Friends became People United for Self Help & More (PUSHM), mission and vision statements, and a logo. The vision statement is signed by 10 Perth Amboy SERV residents. It includes items such as "we would like our privacy respected" and "we want a community that includes us in forming of policies and programs..." and "we would like peer support specialists hired into the (SERV) organization."

Opposing Christie's Policies

Dear Perth Amboy Residents,

Perth Amboy is a Democratic town and we are proud to be Democrats. We oppose Governor Christie's attacks on working families, women, people of color, the working poor, unions, our environment, public education, and our brothers and sisters in the LGBT community. Last year, many of us as Democrats took a principle stand in a mayor's race where we believed one of our own was doing too much to fulfill Christie's agenda. We were proud of our decision not to endorse, as a committee, any local candidate since Perth Amboy Mayoral election falls under a non-partisan form of government.

But the simple fact is that it's time to move on. Chris Christie won Middlesex County in 2009 and he won in some towns that currently make up the 19th Legislative District. Every second we spend fighting each other is a victory for Chris Christie, and it distracts us from our real goals in November.

Since the election, the Perth Amboy Democratic Committee has prioritized making Perth Amboy an even better place to live. We have been focused on ensuring the candidates for Middlesex County Freeholder understand the issues in Perth Amboy. In addition, we also focused on doing everything we can to ensure Barbara Buono is elected the next Governor of our great state.

A true leader would have brought people together. Mayor Diaz and her team have instead made personal attacks against the chair of the Perth Amboy Democratic Committee and Vice Chair of our county, Leslie Dominguez-Rodriguez. An attack on our Chair is an attack on us as well.

It is time to put last November behind us and start looking toward this November.

It is time for Mayor Diaz and her team to get to work making our city better instead of worrying about a political machine's vendetta. And, it is time for a leader who descried the attacks on a female Latina elected leader, to stop the attacks on a competent and capable female Latina elected leader.

We, the undersigned, pledge our support for Leslie Dominguez-Rodriguez for another term as the Perth Amboy Democratic Committee Chair. We are ready to stop the infighting and get to work electing Barbara Buono our next Governor. We invite everyone in Perth Amboy to join us in a spirit of shared values, and to stop the attacks one of our own.

Sincerely,
MC Perth Amboy Democratic Executive Board

South Amboy Becomes a Beacon of Culture

By: Beverly Samuelson

SOUTH AMBOY - Sadie Pope Dowdell Library was the place for an afternoon of spectacular music. The City Winds Trio performed a wonderful music experience for everyone of all ages. The trio members are Meredyth Coleman on the Oboe, Crispian Fordham on the Flute and Yuki Higaski on the Bassoon. The trio has performed at the prestigious Trinity Church, Cathedral St. John Divine and St. Paul's Chapel in New York.

The event is part of a program offered by the Middlesex County Cultural & Heritage Commission, the Middlesex County Board of Chosen Freeholders with assistance thru a grant provided by New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Dept. of State. The trio performed many Classical and Ragtime pieces. We heard the music of Mozart and many others.

Under the direction of Elaine R. Gaber, Director and the Library Board of Trustees, South Amboy residents are privileged to have the opportunity to many events at the library. Ms. Gaber, her staff and the Board of Trustees are working hard to bring the residents the best in programs including downloadable books, a computer room, along with having the library as the Cultural Center for the community. As part of their goal, the library has been developing innovative programs in visual and performing arts which will provide a higher level of cultural events.

I can certainly say, with programming like this, South Amboy will soon become the cultural hub of Middlesex County. Keep your eyes open for more exciting events. Spend an afternoon at the Sadie Pope Dowdell Library in South Amboy, it will be time well spent

Public Service Announcement

PERTH AMBOY - The City has recently experienced a rash of burglaries, 13 of which occurred during the daytime. One of the tactics being used is where the suspect rings or knocks on the front door and if it is answered by the home owner the suspect will ask random questions in an attempt to divert the owner's attention so that the burglary can be committed.

We are requesting that any citizens that notice strangers around their homes, their neighbors' homes, or their area to please call the police so we may follow up.

The department is addressing this matter and is requesting your assistance.
