Pallone Opposes Federal Immigration Policies

KEYPORT - Rep. Frank Pallone, D-6th District, this week praised local officials who he said stood up to federal policies which would have essentially turned police into agents for immigration enforcement.

"It's just not the job of local officers," said Pallone in an annual meeting he usually holds with area journalists around this time of year. The meeting was staged at the International House of Pancakes restaurant in Keyport. Pallone's district covers parts of Monmouth and Middlesex counties, including Perth Amboy and South Amboy.

In a wide-ranging discussion with seven members of the media, Pallone backed efforts of local officials who have spoken out against federal policy in the form of the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agency and similar groups which have tried to encourage local police and law-enforcement officers to assist in finding and arresting illegal immigrants.

One of those officials who rejected federal overtures is Perth Amboy Mayor Wilda Diaz, and Pallone mentioned her along with others who have told ICE not to use police for finding and arresting aliens. "Middlesex County has done a great job in this regard," Pallone said.

But in discussing immigration as dictated by the Trump Administration, Pallone said Trump's hard-line attitude about immigration has kept down the number of legal immigrants as well. As Pallone travels around, he said he gets complaints from business owners who, in the past, routinely hired legal immigrants. Now, they say, they have a much smaller pool of legal workers.

"Factories, restaurants and agriculture can't get people," he said.

Many hourly employees at New Jersey shore concessions and stores during the summer months often have come from central and eastern European

Anti-Bullying, Doctrine of Necessity Evoked Again, and Homework & Grading Policy 8/24/17 Board of Education Meeting

PERTH AMBOY – A slideshow presentation on self-assessment for determining grades under the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act was given by Mrs. Mary J. McAdam Director of School Counseling & Related Services.

On the report, the total number of incidents for the high school was 32; 18 in the middle schools; and 13 in the elementary schools. There was a point system that each school had to pass in order to meet or pass the criteria established by the anti-bullying program.

There were 50 training sessions and 85 programs. McAdam was pleased to announce that the Perth Amboy School System exceeded or met the criteria.

For more information on the 24 page New Jersey Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights go to www.state.nj.us.

Because 7 of the 9 Board Members have at least one relative employed by the school system, the Doctrine of Necessity was evoked. This was necessary due to the discussions and negotiations between the Board of Ed and the PA-AFT regarding Superintendent Dr. Roman's contract.

Chair for the Personnel Committee Obi Gonzalez read a statement referencing the lack of quorum to vote on certain aspects of Superintendent Dr. Roman's contract.

Later in the Meeting Board President Kenneth Puccio made his report. He said it was important that he relayed the following story: "I crossed paths recently with an area doctor. In the 1960's, this doctor said as a student that he couldn't decide what area of practice he wanted ber Mr. Massopust who was that High School Teacher who influenced that doctor in a positive way when he was a student." Those in attendance acknowledged Mr. Massopust with applause.

When Superintendent Dr. Roman spoke, he thanked the present and new staff, who he stated are phenomenal. "They are on the front line as are the administrators. I also want to recognize Dulce Rodriguez who is leaving the district. She

Pallone on Immigration

nations. Pallone's district covers several of these shore towns.

A controversy has existed surrounding this issue for many months, especially since Donald Trump assumed the presidency. In some cases, ICE enforcement officers have been said to go to county courthouses to wait for illegal aliens to appear in court on unrelated charges and then arrest them. Pallone especially praised Middlesex County for speaking out against this policy.

Some mayors and other local officials have used the term "sanctuary city" to describe a locale where local police are on the record against helping ICE to find and arrest aliens.

In a meeting in Perth Amboy last January, Pallone said that cooperation between federal and local officials is "voluntary." Diaz said she instructed Perth Amboy police not to act as federal immigration officers because she felt such a policy nurtured mistrust of public officials and especially police. Trump was the center of discussions with reporters at the meeting with Pallone. Pallone is angered by Trump's policies over a whole range of topics, including the president's failure to unequivocally condemn the Ku Klux Klan and other white supremacist groups. Pallone said that local religious leaders should speak out against Trump's failure to condemn the racist right.

"I did not appreciate his speech," Pallone said of Trump's response to the incident two weeks ago where a demonstrator was killed allegedly by a member of the extreme right.

"He failed to unite us when he said both sides are equal," Pallone said.

Switching to Trump's proposal to continue the war in Afghanistan, Pallone said, "He was persuaded by the generals. He made a mistake in changing his mind."

Pallone was referring to Trump's unambiguous statements on the campaign trail in 2016 to get the United States out of the war in Afghanistan. Now Trump has reversed his policy.

Pallone also had objections to Trump's failure to support his own trillion-dollar infrastructure plan. Pallone said the Trump has done little to get it through Congress. Essentially the plan — a series of bills before Congress — would improve roads, highways, bridges, railroads and other property that the United States pays for and works with state governments to repair, build and maintain.

Pallone himself is the sponsor of a bill he introduced last May called LIFT (Leading Infrastructure for Tomorrow's America) that would pay for improvements to broadband, drinking water, healthcare, the electric grid, brownfield redevelopment and renewable energy. Pallone is seeking $170 billion through his committee, Energy and Commerce, where he serves as the ranking member.

Pallone's frustration was evident in his dismay at Trump's failure to support legislation that would improve the nation's overall infrastructure.

"We could fix the Affordable Care Act (Obamacare), the infrastructure and tax reform" if Trump would get behind improving the nation, Pallone said.

On other issues, Pallone said:

- U.S. Sen. Robert Menendez, D-N.J., who is about to go to trial for corruption, is not guilty, and the trial which just finished jury selection in Newark will show that. "I am hopeful that he's found not guilty," said Pallone. "I think he's a great senator and has done a great job and will be vindicated."

- Opiate addiction is critical in New Jersey, and Pallone praised work to help users and those who overdose in Monmouth County. He noted a law passed in 2016 that made it easier for police to use NARCAN to help overdosers.

- Despite the rough-and-tumble attitude that Republicans and Democrats show toward each other, "a lot of bi-partisan things get done." For example, the Food and Drug Reauthorization Act passed with barely a whisper in the news, but it contains many helpful changes to federal policy, including the right of citizens to buy devices like hearing aids at deeply discounted prices and the ability to purchase generic drugs earlier in the approval process.

- Essentially, Pallone said, Trump is "repeating the isolation" of 100 years ago. "It's wrong," he said. "I don't want to get back to that. It was a dark period in our history."

8/24/17 Board of Education Meeting

has always remained the same and many people in the community love her." Roman also recognized the central office, "Especially the behind the scenes personnel who do the heavy lifting. A lot of the school's facilities have been approved and we're ready to open. We had a recent Board Retreat session. Our next retreat will involve the administration. Clarity and transparency are very important. We will have one collective voice and you can see what I have done in my 3 years here."

When it came to one of the curriculum items, Board Member Junior Iglesia was concerned about the out-of-district placements and contracts of special education students in out-of-district facilities. "We don't have the capacity for this and we're using $9 million. We need to do more research to give them the services here instead of out-of-district."

Superintendent Roman agreed with Iglesia and stated that the District Supervisor of Special Education is looking into this.

Board Member Anton J. Masopust had the following remarks, "As a Member of the Board of Education, I was interested in why the students weren't reading well. I found out that there was a lack of books in the system. Myself, former Board Member Sam Lebreault and present Board Member Milady Tejada pushed to purchase books. Books were purchased, but I saw the students weren't bringing the books home. I found out that there wasn't a strong homework policy. I wanted to start a policy and Dr. Roman stated that we need to have a policy for grading as well as homework. We reviewed the homework and grading policies. There are 3 very important questions a teacher needs to ask themselves: what to teach; how to teach it; and what is needed to do proper teaching. We wanted a committee of teachers from all grades (PreK - 12th Grade) and the administrators. Every teacher has to have this one objective: to make sure the students are successful and responsible citizens of the United States of America. Students must compete countrywide and worldwide. I want to thank the teachers and administrators who got this done."

Superintendent Roman added his thoughts, "I thank the Board of Education, teachers, administration who worked together to implement this policy. We'll meet throughout the school year if we feel something needs to be worked on. We're looking to improve our students and also hold them accountable."

Board Member Jose Rodriguez was not present.

Revisiting Mother Nature Hell Hath No Fury Like a Woman Scorned!

Man's Best Friend: The Experiment

What is more potent than the atomic bomb? The answer: mother nature. She has frontal attacks from the sky, the sea and the ground. She has the ability to wipe out whole towns in a matter of a few hours and can even do it in the middle of the night when no one expects it to happen.

You don't have to take my word for it. The proof is in the pudding. Research how earthquakes, tsunamis, rain, volcanic eruptions, superstorms, and waves have wiped out complete communities - human lives. Many times, when you do have warnings, there's nothing you can do to stop mother nature from destroying your property, but you were thankful if you were able to escape unharmed.

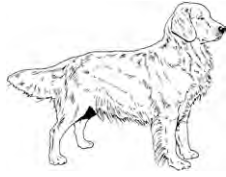

Some newer buildings have been modernized with reinforced structures, but when mother nature wants to take that property, nothing is going to stop her.

With all of the turmoil and conflicts going on around the world, it's almost as if people are taking on the characteristics of a destructive storm. Look at Hurricane Harvey and the havoc mother nature is wreaking on some parts of Texas.

If you measured the inches of rain that they've had so far in snowfall it would be 55 feet of snow!

Will mother nature one day get so upset with all this hatred going on and all this conflict that she will decide to open up the earth to shake people up? People will have no choice but to start holding on to each other, no matter who they are or who they were fighting against for survival. People will be saying: "Hold on! Hold on!" That's just a natural reaction.

I love people who create a certain situation to see how people will react. There was a brilliant social experiment ad that I saw on YouTube by the Pedigree Company. The premise was there was a rally being held with Trump and Clinton supporters. All of a sudden someone started yelling out, "I found a lost dog! I found a lost dog! Please! Please! Someone I need some help to find its owner!"

The Trump and Clinton supporters united in an effort to find that dog's owner. The final statement in that ad was: "This election has brought out the worst in us. We sought to remind people what brings out the good." I have one word for that ad: BRILLIANT!

Unfortunately, the only time we seem to be united is during a natural disaster. Remember back when you could go to a concert, play, or sporting event and actually see what you pay for without having a political speech or action jammed down your throat? I like to go to those events to escape politics. If you cannot deliver what I paid to see, then I want a refund on my ticket.

We declare that the month of December to be: "UNITY MONTH." You have 3 months to get rid of all of your frustrations and demons.

On 8/28/17 in the a.m. I was listening to the radio when the host told the guest he was speaking to about the 5 people lost so far during Hurricane Harvey. The guest said, that during the same time frame they had lost about the same amount of people during Katrina. It wasn't until after Hurricane Katrina was over that they discovered the many additional lives that were lost.

Please remember those in Texas of whom they estimate 6 million people will be affected by the loss of their homes. C.M.

The NAACP Perth
Amboy Area Branch
Hosts Founders Day
Hour of Power Prayer
Vigil: Reclaiming our Legacy!

Press Release 8/27/17

CARTERET, PERTH AMBOY, SAYREVILLE, SOUTH AMBOY, AND WOODBRIDGE TOWNSHIP - Perth Amboy Area NAACP joins with the Saint James AME Zion Church and Pastor Amos Dickerson, Jr. to unite in Prayer for ACTION! The recent tragedies that our nation continues to face with civil unrest as well as the recent brutal police beating of a young black teenager in Carteret creates a greater sense of urgency for our faith communities to come together. It is incumbent upon our faith leaders and congregations to leverage their power to create lasting change. The current political climate calls for us to stay vigilant and work together to protect our civil liberties. Together we can reclaim the victory of our past to live better in the present and to generate hope for the future!

The event is chaired by Rev. Donna Stewart, Pastor, New Jerusalem AME Zion Church, and hosted by Rev. Amos Dickerson, Jr., Pastor, St. James AME Zion Church of Perth Amboy.

NAACP has a rich heritage of working within the faith communities to mobilize and take action. It’s time to reclaim our legacy!

“On Sept. 8, 76 years ago, community members took a stand against the injustices of our society and today we must continue the work. The nation’s focus on race relations, violence in our communities, policies and practices that simply are not fairly enforced within housing and the criminal justice sectors are just a few reasons why the NAACP is just as relevant today as it was in 1941,” says Perth Amboy Area Branch President Ms. Elizabeth Williams-Riley. “The NAACP needs prayer warriors and soldiers to fight this battle against unjust systems that set barriers to access to fair housing, equal pay, job opportunities, environmental justice, and quality healthcare, and that promote high rates of incarceration.”

The prayer vigil will be held on Friday, September 8, at the St. James AME Zion Church of Perth Amboy located at 68 Commerce St, Perth Amboy, NJ 08861, beginning at 6pm. The entire community is invited to attend!

Clergy from congregations throughout the local area will focus on our civic leaders, families, community, unity, and much more. This event is free! To register your congregation, contact us at NAACPPerthAmboyArea@gmail.com .

This Week in World War II 75 Years Ago

By: Phil Kohn. Dedicated to the memory of his father, GM3 Walter Kohn, U.S. Navy Armed Guard, USNR, and all men and women who have answered the country's call in time of need. Phil can be contacted at ww2remembered@yahoo.com.

On August 28, 1942, a Japanese seaplane — catapulted from the deck of submarine I-25, cruising offshore — drops incendiary bombs over Oregon and starts a forest fire. In Europe, the RAF launches a massive raid against Nuremberg, Germany, killing 4,000 civilians and destroying over 10,000 houses. In France, German authorities order the arrest of any Catholic priests harboring Jews. On this one day alone, 1,000 Jews — including 150 children — are “deported” from Paris to the death camp at Auschwitz, in Occupied Poland.

U.S. Navy and Army personnel occupy Adak Island, in the Aleutians, on August 29, to begin establishing naval and air bases there. These will allow attacks against Japanese bases on the nearby islands of Attu and Kiska. In Switzerland, the International Committee of the Red Cross announces that Japan (which did not sign the 1929 Geneva Convention on Warfare) is refusing to allow free passage of ships carrying food, medicines and other necessities to American prisoners of war.

Working off intercepted and decoded German messages, the British Royal Navy on August 30 sinks the German vessel SS San Andrea and its cargo of tank fuel destined for the Afrika Korps. It is the fourth fuel-transport ship sunk off North Africa by the British in the last two days. Luxembourg is formally annexed to the German Reich, and military conscription is introduced. The resulting general strike protesting the conscription order ends after the Germans shoot some of the strikers. In France, Catholic bishops publicly condemn the mistreatment of Jews, and their deportations to Nazi death camps.

Aircraft carrier USS Saratoga is attacked and damaged by a Japanese submarine off Santa Cruz Island in the Solomons on August 31. In North Africa, German Field Marshal Erwin Rommel attempts to break through at El Alamein, Egypt, in the Battle of Alam Halfa. However, the 15th Panzer Division fails to penetrate the British Eighth Army's lines, and sustains heavy casualties, losing about 30 tanks. In Greece, British commandos conduct a raid on the island of Rhodes. In Washington, Agriculture Secretary Claude Wickard announces that meat rationing will likely become necessary in the U.S.

On September 1, German Army Group A, in the Caucasus, captures the Black Sea port of Anapa. Axis forces fight their way into Stalingrad's suburbs. In the U.S., a federal judge upholds the legality of the government's internment of Japanese-Americans as security risks.

Japanese submarines begin raiding in and around the Indian Ocean on September 2. Submarine I-29 sinks the British cargo ship SS Gazcon in the mouth of the Gulf of Aden with a loss of 12 lives. In North Africa, Rommel — after suffering heavy losses from fierce Allied resistance — is forced to retreat to Bab el Qattara, Egypt, his starting point for the Alam Halfa offensive near El Alamein. The Axis forces now take up defensive positions, awaiting an Allied counteroffensive. In Occupied Poland, Nazi security forces in the Warsaw Ghetto begin the evacuation of over 50,000 Jews to extermination or concentration camps.

The Battle of Stalingrad begins on September 3, as troops of the German Sixth Army under Field Marshal Friedrich Paulus attack the center of the city. Civilian men and boys are conscripted by the Red Army to aid in Stalingrad's defense. In the Pacific, Japanese forces occupy Santa Isabel Island, in the Solomons.

Novena to St. Rita

O holy protectress of those who art in greatest need, thou who shineth as a star of hope in the midst of darkness, blessed Saint Rita, bright mirror of God's grace, in patience and fortitude thou art a model of all the states in life. I unite my will with the will of God through the merits of my Savior Jesus Christ, and in particular through his patient wearing of the crown of thorns, which with tender devotion thou didst daily contemplate. Through the merits of the holy Virgin Mary and thine own graces and virtues, I ask thee to obtain my earnest petition, provided it be for the greater glory of God and my own sanctification. Guide and purify my intention, O holy protectress and advocate, so that I may obtain the pardon of all my sins and the grace to persevere daily, as thou didst in walking with courage, generosity, and fidelity down the path of life. (Mention your request.) Saint Rita, advocate of the impossible, pray for us. Saint Rita, advocate of the helpless, pray for us.

Recite the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be three times each. K.M. & C.M.
