5/24/17 Council Meeting

PERTH AMBOY - Resident Stanley Sierakowski had a question related to R-220-5/17 - Awarding a contract for Stop Loss Insurance to Berkley.

Stanley Sierakowski questioned the Council to see if they even heard about the insurance company. "Our main insurance carrier (Fairview) is very heavily Democratic. For you (the Council) to get 5 identical bids is impossible. How is this contract structured. There are no details."

Sierakowski then questioned R-214-5/17 Authorizing the proper City Officials to execute a contract with Sheltered Hearts in the amount of $24,750. This resolution was voided. This resolution was tabled by B.A. Adam Cruz because it needed to be approved by HUD.

"The woman who requested this money just wanted to renovate the house."

Sierakowski said, "It should have been voided because the entity (Sheltered Hearts) wanted a $24,750 grant regarding a CDBG grant." Department of Housing and Urban Development. The woman who came here AC couple of years ago to renovate the house and charge people $500 for the services provided. It was the right decision to void it."

Sierakowski also advised the Council to void R-220.

Resident and President of Perth Amboy Artworks Committee, Caroline Pozzycki-Torres was glad to report to the Council that there was a quick resolve to the problem she was having with the change of date with the kickoff to her Ferry Slip Museum Concert Series. "The launch will be July 8 and I can use the City logo (on my advertising material). I was also reimbursed for the canceled June event and perhaps the application forms for any entertainment events that take place can be revised with clarity. I'm happy to move on and I'm grateful for all the help; I received.

Resident Ken Balut came up to speak about Communication No. 10.

Council President William Petrick asked the Business Administrator to provide the Council with copies of all incident reports regarding the Puerto Rican Festival (2016) and the Ferry Slip Music Events (2016) Balut said, "All festival incidents should be recorded."

He then went on to R-211- Authorizing a release in the matter of DeSantis Construction vs. The City of Perth Amboy in an amount not to exceed $44,406.90"

He questioned: "What kind of ruling was for this money?"

R-224 - Awarding a professional special services agreement to DeCotiis, FitzPatrick, Cole & Giblen LLP for continued legal representations and previously assigned matters which are still pending in amount not to exceed $115,000.

Balut reminded the Council, "When the former Law Director (Arlene Quinones) was here, she said she was supporting the Mayor's Ticket. Quinones had her picture of some of the Mayors campaign literature. $100,000 of campaign money is uncounted for. Did you (any Council Members) accept any money from Fairview or Berkley Insurance? Your silence said you did. Almost a half million dollars in contracts were awarded. A former contractor is sitting in jail right now. I got all the campaign literature right here."

Councilman Fernando Irizarry responded to Balut's comments about a person last name of Ferraioli who has made campaign contributions to the Mayor's ticket or whom she has supported. "That person (Ferraioli) is not related to the City Auditor and we know it! The complaint that you (Balut) are referring to was in 2013."

Resident Vince Mackiel had a question about R-218-5/17 regarding the NJDEP Green Acres Program dealing with a major diversion of certain park lands in connection with the Buckeye Partners L.P. Pipeline Project for $855,000.

Mackiel asked the Council,

"Before anything is done, Chevron and other sites should be mitigated. I understand jobs are important, but partial cleanups are not helping the City. Buckeye will pollute the waters. Parts of Elizabeth and Linden are still contaminated because of the partial cleanup of Exxon."

When it came to voting on agenda items, R-206-R-223 & R-225-R-228 were moved by Councilman Fernando Gonzalez and seconded by Councilman Jelmin Caba. On Resolution R-224, Councilman Fernando Gonzalez asked that it be voted on separately after a discussion. He stated that he would like to review this resolution "Because we may need to return money to the DeCotiis Firm. I want to look at your billing."

B.A. Adam Cruz responded, "The amount awarded to the DeCotiis Firm was brought down to $150,000. There is money owed to DeCotiis which is $38,000 for a certain time frame."

Law Director Peter King also commented, "We need a back billing report."

Councilman Fernando Gonzalez responded to King, "If you need to take over, some of the DeCotiis Cases, I need to see what they owe them."

During the last public portion, Resident Stanley Sierakowski told the Council, "You made a multimillion dollar mistake when it comes to replacing lights in the City. You could save money if you use LED lights instead and you should have looked at any State Programs first."

Resident Ken Balut came up to speak, "All white collar jobs got huge raises. The bridge might be a good PILOT but Fehrenbach would never have you (the Council) out of the loop. You have no clue what's going on in the City. When I was on the Council, I received reports from Department Heads. You vote on contracts with zero paperwork. There's

$1.7 million and no paperwork. Deals are being made behind your backs. All the contacts were given to people up in North Jersey."

Resident Jeremy Baratta came up to speak next. He spoke about the trouble of late he's had stemming from his appointment on January 13, 2017 to the Historic Preservation Commission. "On January 18, 2017 I received a letter to sign forms. I then received a letter stating that my term has been suspended. Only the City Council can remove a Commissioner off the HPC. My being on the handicapped parking committee does not make me ineligible to be on the HPC and I would like to be reinstated."

He also mentioned 2 other HPC Members: Eleni Glykis and Anna Daily. "They should also be ineligible based on what was told to me regarding my suspension. Daily is on the Board of Trustees of the Library Board and Glykis is Library Director."

Law Director Peter King responded, "All Members of the HPC must meet qualifications." Baratta responded, "I've heard about this for a month from Mr. King."

Chair of the Historic Preservation Commission Reinaldo Aviles came up to speak about Baratta's plight. "I have issues on how this was handled. I didn't know about this (Baratta's letter of suspension) until I saw Elaine Jasko (City Clerk) about a different matter and she told me. As the chair of the HPC, I should have been notified first."

Jose Amarante who is a member of the Zoning Board of Adjustment stated that he had taken all of the required classes and was sworn in by a Clerk in the City Office but would like to get a signed copy of the oath.

Resident Mark Achamizo was concerned about the large amount of drunk people on Smith Street between 1 a.m. and 2 a.m. "Rector Street is a disaster (part of the street) and I don't drive a jalopy."

During the Council Comments, Councilman Joel Pabon said, "I talked to the Mayor on how you can be unaware of what's going on in town. I road by the Patten School and it's crazy. Cars are double-parked when school is let out. We need to do something to alleviate traffic during that time. The cars even block people's driveways."

Council President Bill Petrick then spoke, "There will be a traffic jam when the Seaman Street School is built by the fire-house/police station. It will be a dangerous situation just like at the Patten School. The BOE Administration Building would have been better suited there and Sayre Avenue for the school."

MILITARY VETERANS WHO'VE SUFFERED AN INJURY HAVE MADE ENORMOUS SACRIFICES.

Now, the Wounded Warrior Caregiver Relief Act can help give something back to them, and their caregivers.

The Wounded Warrior Caregivers Relief Act provides a state income tax credit to qualified family caregivers who take care of a military service member who has a disability arising out of service in any war or conflict on or after September 11th, 2001.

According to a recent AARP report, the vast majority of caregivers spend approximately $7,000 out of their own pockets each year to care for their loved ones. The Wounded Warrior Caregivers Relief Act, which passed through both chambers of our State Legislature with unanimous bipartisan support, has been signed into law by Governor Christie. This new law will help honor the struggles of these veterans and their families by providing them with some modest, yet much needed financial relief.

LOCAL PERSPECTIVE

EDITORIAL

This Was Not the Time

Memorial Day Weekend started off with the Perth Amboy Waterfront Arts Festival which was held on the picturesque Sadowski Parkway on 5/27/17. While there, we ran into people from out of town who said they heard about the Festival on Channel 12 News. They said that in their travels, they've seen the exit sign for Perth Amboy many times, but based decided to visit based on the fun events spotlighted in the news report. They as many others were thrilled to see the Blackhawk helicopter.

Although the skies were overcast and rain was threatening, all the attendees that we saw were having a great time as well as the vendors.

As with a lot of festivals that happen around election years, politicians would mingle with the crowd along with their staff who distribute various political literature. That is expected.

But, what we don't like are when politicians overstep their boundaries and wear out their welcome. This is when they use an event that is supposed to be non-political and turned into a personal campaign rally I don't care if they did it even for one minute. It was wrong and shameful.

At the Perth Amboy Waterfront Arts Festival, the signs and banners clearly said: "Art, Food, Music."

In the print ad it also said, "Outrageous Music." Of these two words, we find the actions of those politicians that went on stage was "Outrageous. Plus, this was Memorial Day Weekend. As soon as I heard a denouncement of the President - whether you like Trump or not, that was not the time nor the place for politics.

I took a deaf ear to anything else that was said by them. I don't even remember if they mentioned our fallen men and women in the armed forces.

As fans of the game of baseball, one can forgive a rookie when making a stupid mistake. A veteran should know better.

This was bush-league play.

Some spectators came to watch the local bands who they follow perform told me how upset they were when those politicians got up on stage. One spectator had served in the military overseas and was very disheartened, especially when they started verbally bashing Trump of whom he supported. He said, "I didn't come here for this."

Although the skies didn't open up with heavy rain, that moment on stage was a dark cloud and totally unnecessary.

We hope that venues like this are never used again for political purposes.

One has to realize that people need a breather from constant political discourse. And this was one weekend we were looking forward to at least one day to leave politics behind.

That's what political rallies are for - not festivals. C.M. & K.M.

THE COMMUNITY VOICE

Music

Not Politics

My band, Mikell's Plot, performed at the Perth Amboy Arts Festival in May. We were happy to participate in this community event and had a great time. However, just as we were setting up and about to begin, politicians Frank Pallone, Wilma Diaz, and Phil Murphy came up on stage and bashed the President of the United States.

A family fun day should not include such attacks on our nation's President. I saw at least 15 people walk away from the stage who had obviously intended to hear our band perform. My brother, a retired Marine who had come to support my band, was insulted. My guitarist, an Army veteran, was extremely angry. We all chose not to complain in the interest of not mixing politics with music... that is not what Mikell's Plot is about.

Introducing a candidate for NJ Governor would have been fine. Using this venue to show disrespect for our President (especially with children present) was not appropriate.

On behalf of my band, our fans, and our community, I thought this viewpoint needed to be expressed.

Sincerely,
Michael O'Connor

Correction

Sorry, My Mistake

I wrote an op-ed, back in the beginning of May, about a commercial I had seen while watching a special about the water crises in Detroit and Flint Michigan.

In the article I misidentified Brad Pitt as the person starring in the commercial. Well I recently saw the commercial again and realized it was not Brad Pitt but Matt Damon, big difference.

Brad Pitt actually started the "Make it Right" foundation in 2007, which builds eco-friendly houses for Americans in need, starting with the victims of Hurricane Katrina. Sorry Brad.

The Deep State & Mainstream Media

Have you ever noticed what the main stream news media and newspapers we're doing before the election in 2016? They were trying to start a propaganda war in America and they still are trying it now. But in six weeks, many Americans will start seeing a heavy duty finger pointing contest at Capitol Hill. You know the place were those politicians blame each other and nothing gets done. This is not about President Trump or the Russian fantasy show we've been hearing about. It's about those people in the so-called DEEP STATE trying to control our country and telling LIES and control the mainstream media (ABC, NBC, CBS, CNN) and many others that were brainwashed by the DEEP STATE. The people from the DEEP STATE keep telling us they want to impeach Trump. Then show us some evidence from a paper trail. So, let's wait and see the outcome.

Richard Veit, professor of History and Anthropology at Monmouth University, will present a lecture on archaeological research that took place on Sandy Hook. From 1692 to 1817, Sandy Hook was private property of the Harstshormne family of Middletown. Since 1764, the historic lighthouse on the Hook has guarded the treacherous approaches to New York Harbor. During the American Revolution, Continental forces tried unsuccessfully to deny the British control of the lighthouse. British troops and partisans captured Sandy Hook early in the war and despite repeated raids by Continental forces, retained control of the sandy peninsula until the end of the conflict. Indeed, the British fortified the lighthouse and Loyalists, many of African descent, constructed a Refugee Town near the light which served as a base of operations for raiding parties along the Jersey shore. Monmouth University's 2016 archaeological field school investigated the lighthouse property in an attempt to identify the location of the Lighthouse Fort and Refugee Town. Movie Review: Wonder Woman - Two Views

By: Anton Massopust III

“Everyone has to fight their own battles.”

Wonder Woman finds her way onto the big screen again. If you remember her in “Batman vs. Superman: Dawn of Justice,” she was probably the most memorable part of that movie. Wonder Woman holds her own and is now featured in her own movie.

Diana is a princess who was sculpted out of clay from her mother and given Life by the powerful god Zeus. Diana wants to be a warrior, but her mother doesn't want her to. Eventually she is trained as a warrior by the General of the Amazons who trains her to be as the greatest warrior like no ordinary Amazon. During World War One, Pilot Steve Trevor drops into their world who is pursued by Germans and almost drowns. Diana saves him. When she finds out about the war to end all wars, she believes that one of their Legends has come true and that Ares, the god of war is still alive and threatening the world.

She believes Ares is making mankind fight this terrible War. At first, her mother Queen Hippolyta forbids her to go, but eventually lets her go. Diana takes armor the lasso of Truth and the god killing sword which she believes is the only thing that can stop Ares. Their adventure begins as they Journey to the front of the war and team up with a small group of people with different nationalities including a Turkish Actor, Irish Sniper with Shell Shock, and an American Indian Smuggler of whom each goes to stop a German General who plans to use a gas weapon that will make the war even worse and his cruel chemist, Dr. Poison. Wonder Woman believes that one of them is Aries if she can stop him the war will end.

Finally, DC has a movie they can be proud of. Forget about the mess that “Batman vs. Superman” or “Suicide Squad” was. This new movie is great! Wonder Woman has a long history as founding member of Justice League in the comics and even a World War II group called All-Star Squadron. There even was a time when she was powerless and no one thought that was a good idea. Probably most audiences know her from Lynda Carter television series first fighting the World War II Nazis and then as a spy in the modern age fighting power mad conspirators and aliens.

Can this new actress (Gal Gadot) fight her way onto the big screen and carry a whole movie by herself? You bet she can! This movie offers just enough character development and of course, plenty of superhero action. It's visually interesting, jumping from an island to London during World War I to a German Castle. It reminds me of a Bond movie in many respects, except this lead is Wonder Woman. Take the whole family. Everyone will enjoy it she's still a wonder - that Wonder Woman!

By: Katherine Massopust

Wonder Woman (Gal Gadot) has come to the big screen. As a fan of the Wonder Woman TV Series in the 1970's featuring Lynda Carter as the DC Comics Super Hero, I am thrilled to see Wonder Woman on the big screen.

“Wonder Woman” is about the horrors of war. Set during WWI (although in the DC Comic Wonder Woman’s origins are during WWII) Princess Diana grows up on the island Themyscira and is trained to be the greatest warrior among the Amazons by Antiope (Robin Wright).

When United States Pilot Steve Trevor (Chris Pine) crashes in the ocean near the island, Diana rescues him. Diana chooses to go with Steve Trevor to London, England to find Ares, the god of war. Queen Hippolyta (Connie Nelson) reluctantly agrees and Diana leaves the island on a mission to end war. In London they are helped by Trevor's Secretary Etta Candy (Lucy Davis) and later by a ragtag team of a Turkish Actor Sameer (Saïd Taghmaoui), an American Indian: The Chief (Eugene Brave Rock) and Charlie (Ewen Bremner) a sniper who suffers from Shell Shock to find Ludendorff (Danny Huston) and Dr. Poison (Elena Anaya) who is developing a gas so strong that it even penetrates gasmasks.

It's refreshing to see a woman hero that can take care of herself and not depend on any man to give her orders or think for her. Wonder Woman does her own thing. She can fight better than any man and she knows it. She isn't afraid to do what she believes is right.

Full of action, Wonder Woman is fun for kids of all ages and adults who were fan of the show in the '70's and the comics. Visually, the movie is gorgeous and a “must see” on your list of movies.

Rescue of Fawn from Storm Drain Nets
Peta Award for Woodbridge Police
Baby Deer Stuck Inside Underground Pipe System is Uninjured and Returned to Woods

Press Release 5/31/17
WOODBIDGE - A Compassionate Police Department Award is on its way from PETA to the Woodbridge Police Department after Officer Tim Majek rescued a baby deer from a storm drain on May 24. After responding to a call from a concerned neighbor, he arrived on the scene and found the fawn about 6 feet down inside the drain. He opened the grate, lowered himself in, and managed to carry the fawn to safety before returning the uninjured animal to the nearby woods. "This brave and determined police officer saved this tiny fawn from a terrifying, life-threatening predicament and carefully returned the animal to the forest to find his or her mother," says PETA Vice President Colleen O'Brien. "PETA hopes this story will inspire others to come to the aid of animals in distress."

Last year, Officer Majek helped rescue a buck who was caught in a soccer net and another who was entangled in fence netting. PETA—whose motto reads, in part, that "animals are not ours to abuse in any way"—will send the Woodbridge Police Department a framed certificate and a box of delicious vegan cookies.

YarnPlay Knit in Public (KIP) Day @ WPL!

Press Release 5/25/17
WOODBIDGE - Share your time with other knitters! Please bring your chair and work in progress. Please note that if it rains this event will be moved inside the Main Library.
World Wide Knit in Public Day was started in 2005 by Danielle Landes. It began as a way for knitters to come together and enjoy each other's company. Knitting is such a solitary act that it's easy to knit alone somewhere and sink into your work without thinking about all the other knitters out there. Neighbors could spend all their lives never knowing that the other knits. This a specific day to get out of your house and go to a local event (with your knitting in tow) just for you and people like you. Who knows you might even bump into your neighbor! Consider this a spark, to ignite a fire; getting all of the closeted knitters out into fresh air.

Amboy Spotlight: Chef Slavko's Harbor Walk Grill

By: Katherine Massopust
PERTH AMBOY – The Amboy Guardian sat down with Chef Slavko Petric to answer some questions about himself and the Harbor Walk Grill.

During World War II, Yugoslavia (now known as Croatia) was a fascist nation. Germany attacked the north and Italy attacked the south. Yugoslavia remained a communist nation after WWII.

“Under communist rule, there was no freedom of travel. I left Croatia, a communist country when I was 18 years old (1964). The first time when I was trying to escape, the border guards caught me. They put me in prison where everything is hard. The bed is chained to the wall. In the morning they wake you up and chain the bed up on the wall. The bench which you sit on is made of marble. You don’t know what it’s like when 24 hours a day, everything is a hard surface. I stayed in prison for 3 months. They transferred me from me from prison to prison until I was back in my hometown, Zadar, Croatia. They made me walk to the Police Station in chains which made you look like you’re some sort of criminal and all I did was try to cross the border. My mother found out I was in prison and she came in and yelled at them to let me go. Eventually they let me go because I was young.”

“I told my parents I wanted to cross the border again. They weren’t too happy about it, but I went anyway. The second time I tried to cross the border, I went with someone (my friend, Sjaus.) We took the bus and got off 40 miles before the border. From there, we walked 3 days and nights with no food and a little water which was from a brook or a stream. We saw a well on a farm and drank the water. In Yugoslavia, when you’re a farmer, you get a tax credit if you report someone. We saw a farmer and we knew within 10 minutes he had called the police. I climbed a tree and saw the whole area. They (the border guards) were waiting. The road was U shaped and you had to go across. We could see the mountains ahead of us which were cut up. This is a neutral zone between the two countries. We came to an open field and said to ourselves, “What are we going to do now?” We saw them watching us in the tower. We took a chance and ran for it. We ran like crazy and they didn’t see us. We came to a stone wall that was 3 feet tall. When we went over the wall, we saw a man who was speaking Italian. We had made it over the border into Italy. It was a small town called Trieste. We went from that spot to a refugee camp or campo profuso. Later we walked to the refugee camp in San Saba.”

“We stayed in San Saba for a few months and they shipped us to another refugee camp in Lutina, a City that Mussolini built. It was all flat and a decent size. I then was transferred to the southern part of Italy in a city called Capua, which was a place where there were a large number of refugees. Back then, the French had the Foreign Legion, which were paid soldiers. If you were from Yugoslavia and had joined the Foreign Legion, you couldn’t go back to Yugoslavia. You had to go to the refugee camps. A lot of people went to live in Australia.”

“I had two uncles in the United States: Rado Petric (younger) and Miro Petric (older) who had come to the United States during World War II. Miro was a Merchant Marine and joined the army during WWII and was stationed in the Philippines. Rado sponsored me into this country. I came over in 1965.”

Slavko explained, “My parents came to visit several times. My father lived to be 92 and my mother lived to be 86. My sister, Mileva came to the United States later and died from Lou Gehrig’s disease (ALS).”

Slavko was married in 1968 and has two daughters and a son. “My oldest daughter is a CPA. My middle daughter is a Teacher and my son is in college and is presently teaching as well.”

“I learned to cook at the Swiss Chalet in Ramsey (located off of Rte. 17 in Bergen County, New Jersey). My cousin was a chef there. I did a little of ev-everything: clean, bus tables and at the same time I learned how to cook. Within 5 years, I became a chef and then went on to another job in Windsor Bay, Berkeley Township, New Jersey.”

“I later worked in the Old Time Tavern in Toms River, New Jersey. I heard they were looking for a chef at the Royal Yacht Club in Perth Amboy in the late ‘90’s and worked there for 10 years. Mike Zylka, the Director at the Yacht Club and Mike George who was in charge of the Marina asked me about the need of someone selling food to the fishermen and people who were walking on the Marina. So, they asked if I would put a food truck on the Marina.”

Slavko chose the menu at the Harbor Walk Grill as the most requested and most convenient to make. When asked the secret of his famous crab cakes, Slavko answered, “I use fresh real crabmeat in my recipe.”

When asked what young people should expect when pursuing the culinary arts, Slavko’s advice was this: “If you decide to pursue a career in the food industry, it’s very demanding. You work all holidays and weekends. You really have to be motivated. If you want to get married, make sure your spouse understands the requirements of the job.”

Chef Slavko says of America, “It’s the land of opportunity, a nation of immigrants who have come here to make their life better.”

In Washington, D.C., the U.S. on June 5 declares war against Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria. The Japanese occupy Attu Island, in the Aleutians off Alaska. In North Africa, the British Eighth Army under Gen. Neil Ritchie launches a major counter-attack against Rommel in “the Cauldron,” near Sidi Muftah. It fails, and the British suffer heavy tank losses.

On June 6, the Luftwaffe joins in the bombardment of Sevastopol. In North Africa, the British 150th Infantry Brigade is overrun by Rommel’s troops at Sidi Muftah, Libya, with 4,000 soldiers taken prisoners. The British lose another 230 tanks trying to retake the area. Off Recife, Brazil, the German commerce raider Stier sinks the American liberty ship SS Stanvak Calcutta. In San Francisco, the Wartime Civil Control Administration reports that 99,770 U.S. West Coast residents of Japanese ancestry have been moved to internment camps inland.

Four divisions of the German 11th Army assault Sevastopol from the north on June 7. In the Aleutians, the Japanese occupy the island of Kiska. In the Aegean Sea, British commandos conduct a raid on an airfield on German-occupied Crete. They destroy five planes, damage 29 others and set fire to numerous vehicles and significant quantities of supplies.

A Japanese submarine fires several shells into a residential section of Sydney, Australia, on June 8, but only minor damage results. Gen. Douglas MacArthur suggests to U.S. Army Chief of Staff Gen. George Marshall that an offensive be launched in the Pacific, with the targets being New Britain, New Ireland and New Guinea.

On June 9, following the lavish state funeral of Reinhard Heydrich in Berlin, Adolf Hitler — infuriated by Heydrich’s death — orders reprisals. (Heydrich had been mortally wounded in an assassination attempt by two Czech Army sergeants on May 27.) German intelligence wrongly identifies the Czech village of Lidice as complicit in hiding the two assassins. The entire population of the village is gathered up. Over 190 men and boys are executed by firing squads, while 203 women and 105 children under 15 are deported to concentration camps. The village is burned to the ground, with remains of any buildings dynamited. All animals in the village, including pets, are slaughtered. The site of the village is eliminated by covering it with topsoil and planting it over with crops. Roads and a stream are re-routed around the area. The Nazis document everything on film. Two weeks later, the small Czech village of Ležáky, also accused of aiding the assassins, receives the same treatment. In all, it is estimated that over 1,300 people die in reprisals over the death of Reinhard Heydrich.

In North Africa on June 10, after two weeks of fighting in the defense of Bir Hakeim, Libya, the 1st Free French Brigade (which includes Foreign Legionnaires and a battalion of infantry from French Polynesia) is finally overwhelmed and retreats, freeing Rommel’s forces to turn the Gazala Line and move northward. The stubborn defense of the French, however, gives the British Eighth Army time to somewhat regroup. In northwestern Bosnia, 37,000 German and Croatian troops launch a campaign against approximately 3,000 anti-Axis Yugoslav partisans. At the end of the two-month operation, 25,000 civilians and some 1,700 partisans are dead. Axis forces suffer 7,000 killed.

While Soviet defenders at Sevastopol are fighting the German 11th Army, attacking from the north, a major attack on the city is made on June 11 by the Romanian Mountain Corps and the German 30th Army Corps. A vigorous Soviet defense successfully stops both attacks. In North Africa, the Germans break out of “the Cauldron” at Sidi Muftah, in Libya, and turn northward toward Tobruk, with the Allies in retreat before them. Two Allied convoys set out for Malta with desperately needed food, oil and ammunition — one from Gibraltar, the other from Alexandria, Egypt. The strategy is that the Axis forces would concentrate on the convoy they find first, thereby enabling the other to get through.

Novena to St. Rita

O holy protectress of those who art in greatest need, thou who shineth as a star of hope in the midst of darkness, blessed Saint Rita, bright mirror of God’s grace, in patience and fortitude thou art a model of all the states in life. I unite my will with the will of God through the merits of my Savior Jesus Christ, and in particular through his patient wearing of the crown of thorns, which with tender devotion thou didst daily contemplate. Through the merits of the holy Virgin Mary and thine own graces and virtues, I ask thee to obtain my earnest petition, provided it be for the greater glory of God and my own sanctification. Guide and purify my intention, O holy protectress and advocate, so that I may obtain the pardon of all my sins and the grace to persevere daily, as thou didst in walking with courage, generosity, and fidelity down the path of life. (Mention your request.) Saint Rita, advocate of the impossible, pray for us. Saint Rita, advocate of the helpless, pray for us.

A Petition to
St. Jude

Dear St. Joseph, head of the most perfect household, foster father of Jesus and guardian of His mother Mary, I confidently place myself and all my concerns under your care and protection. I ask that, through your powerful intercession with God, you obtain for me all the help and graces that I need for my spiritual and temporal welfare and in particular, the special favor I now ask there mention or think of your home sale or any other petition, especially family needs. Good St. Joseph, I know with confidence, that your prayers on my behalf will be heard by God and that He will grant my request, if it be for His glory and my greater good. Thank you St. Joseph, for having responded to my call. Amen. G.T.A.

St. Jude, helper of the hopeless, pray for us. Say this prayer nine times a day for nine days. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised.

Thank you, St. Jude
